RENT-A-CENTER BUSINESS

- The Rent-A-Center business grew revenue 10% with same store sales growth of 15.4% and the lease portfolio finishing the year up 10.5%.
- 16th consecutive quarter of positive comparable
- EBITDA margin was 23.0% and increased 280 basis points year-over-year, while we continued to invest in the business
- Overall results were impressive, with revenue growth of 9.0%, including same-store-sales growth of 10.4%.
- E-commerce revenue grew 17.9% year-over-year and more than 70% on a 2-year stacked basis and accounted for 23% percent of revenue.
- Adjusted EBITDA margin was 19.3% and declined 290 basis points year-over-year due to higher labor costs, loss rates and other store expenses.
- Skip/stolen losses increased 140 basis points year-over-year to 4.0% percent due to the factors affecting customer payment activity and longer term, we expect it will average around the upper 3% range.
- Moving on to 2022, our top business priorities are focused around enhancing omni-channel capabilities. Our goal is to deliver a more seamless experience for our customers however they choose to shop with us. We have several significant initiatives underway that are aimed directly at driving sales and customer retention.

ACIMA CONSOLIDATED

- The Acima segment grew GMV 23% and revenues 22% on a pro-forma basis in 2021
- EBITDA margin was 12.2% in 2021
- Fourth quarter GMV grew 5% year-over-year, on a pro-forma basis driven primarily by increases in merchant locations

- Adjusted EBITDA margin declined 540 basis points to 9.6%, largely due to higher delinquencies and higher loss rates
- The Ecosystem test has had some encouraging results. By the end of this month, we expect the mobile app will have approximately half a million downloads, roughly double the number from our third-quarter earnings call, and we believe are on pace to reach 1 million downloads around mid-year 2022

CASH FLOW AND BALANCE SHEET

- We generated $49.5 million of free cash flow in the fourth quarter and returned $462 million to shareholders through a $0.31 quarterly dividend and $370 million of share repurchases
- At quarter end, the Company had approximately $360 million remaining on its current share repurchase authorization
- At quarter end, we had a cash balance of $108.3 million, gross debt of $1.6 billion, leverage of 2.3 times, and available liquidity of approximately $280 million
- GAAP EPS was $0.15 in the fourth quarter compared to $1.00 in the prior year period, and included one-time costs related to the Acima transaction and integration

GUIDANCE (CONSOLIDATED)

- Note that for 2022 and moving forward, we will exclude share-based compensation from the calculation of adjusted EBITDA, which we think better reflects the underlying performance of the business and is consistent with the approach of peers
- We expect to generate revenue for the year of $4.450 to $4.600 billion, adjusted EBITDA of $515 to $565 million, from which we now are excluding stock-based compensation, fully diluted adjusted earnings per share of $4.50 to $5.00, and $390 to $440 million of free cash flow.

GUIDANCE (ACIMA SEGMENT)

- For Acima, we expect to continue to add new merchant locations and grow e-commerce; however, macro headwinds and tighter underwriting are expected to negatively impact volume, translating to a low to mid-single digit decline in GMV
- Adjusted EBITDA margin is expected to be in the low double-digits, reflecting modest margin contraction on volume deleverage, higher loss rates, and some incremental investment in marketing to support growth for the Ecosystem
- After factoring in higher expected delinquency rates until the underwriting initiatives take full effect later in the year, we expect a mid to high single-digit decline in revenues

GUIDANCE (RENT-A-CENTER BUSINESS)

- For the Rent-A-Center Business segment, we expect 2022 revenues and same-store sales will be down in the low single-digit range
- Adjusted EBITDA margin should be in the low twenties and modestly lower year-over-year

Forward Looking Statements This press release and the guidance above and the Company's related conference call contain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. These statements are made under the "safe harbor" provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements generally can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "may," "will," "expect," "intend," "could," "estimate," "predict," "continue," "maintain," "should," "anticipate," "believe," or "confident," or the negative thereof or variations thereon or similar terminology and including, among others, statements concerning (i) the Company's guidance for 2022 and future outlook, (ii) the potential effects of the pandemic of the respiratory disease caused by a novel coronavirus ("COVID-19") on the Company's business operations, financial performance, and prospects, (iii) the future business prospects and financial performance of the Company following the merger with Acima Holdings, LLC ("Acima Holdings"), (iv) cost and revenue synergies and other benefits expected to result from the Acima Holdings acquisition, (v) planned technologies and other enhancements to the Company's lease-to-own solutions for consumers and retailers, (vi) potential additional product or service offerings, (vii) the Company's expectations, plans and strategy relating to its capital structure and capital allocation, including any share repurchases under the Company's share repurchase program, and (viii) other statements that are not historical facts. However, there can be no assurance that such expectations will occur. The Company's actual future performance could differ materially and adversely from such statements. Factors that could cause or contribute to these differences include, but are not limited to: (1) risks relating to the Acima Holdings acquisition, including (i) the possibility that the anticipated benefits from the Acima Holdings acquisition may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected, (ii) the possibility that costs, difficulties or disruptions related to the integration of Acima Holdings operations into the Company's other operations will be greater than expected, (iii) the Company's ability to (A) effectively adjust to changes in the composition of the Company's offerings and product mix as a result of acquiring Acima Holdings and continue to maintain the quality of existing offerings and (B) successfully introduce other new product or service offerings on a timely and cost-effective basis, and (iv) changes in the Company's future cash requirements as a result of the Acima Holdings acquisition, whether caused by unanticipated increases in capital expenditures or working capital needs, unanticipated liabilities or otherwise; (2) the Company's ability to identify potential acquisition candidates, complete acquisitions and successfully integrate acquired companies; (3) the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and related government and regulatory restrictions issued to combat the pandemic, including adverse changes in such restrictions, and the expiration of governmental stimulus programs, and impacts on (i) demand for the Company's lease-to-own products offered in the Company's operating segments, (ii) the Company's Acima retail partners, (iii) the Company's customers and their willingness and ability to satisfy their lease obligations, (iv) the Company's suppliers' ability to satisfy its merchandise needs and related supply chain disruptions, (v) the Company's employees, including the ability to adequately staff its operating locations, (vi) the Company's financial and operational performance, and (vii) the Company's liquidity; (4) the general strength of the economy and other economic conditions affecting consumer preferences and spending, including the availability of credit to the Company's target consumers and impacts from inflation; (5) factors affecting the disposable income available to the Company's current and potential customers; (6) changes in the unemployment rate; (7) capital market conditions, including availability of funding sources for the Company; (8) changes in the Company's credit ratings; (9) difficulties encountered in improving the financial and operational performance of the Company's business segments; (10) risks associated with pricing changes and strategies being deployed in the Company's businesses; (11) the Company's ability to continue to realize benefits from its initiatives regarding cost-savings and other EBITDA enhancements, efficiencies and working capital improvements; (12) the Company's ability to continue to effectively execute its strategic initiatives, including mitigating risks associated with any potential mergers and acquisitions, or refranchising opportunities; (13) failure to manage the Company's store labor and other store expenses, including merchandise losses; (14) disruptions caused by the operation of the Company's store information management systems or disruptions in the systems of the Company's host retailers; (15) risks related to the Company's virtual lease-to-own business, including the Company's ability to continue to develop and successfully implement the necessary technologies; (16) the Company's ability to achieve the benefits expected from its integrated virtual and staffed retail partner offering and to successfully grow this business segment; (17) exposure to potential operating margin degradation due to the higher cost of merchandise in the Company's Acima offering and higher merchandise losses than compared to our Rent-A-Center business segment; (18) the Company's transition to more-readily scalable, "cloud-based" solutions; (19) the Company's ability to develop and successfully implement digital or E-commerce capabilities, including mobile applications; (20) the Company's ability to protect its proprietary intellectual property; (21) the Company's ability or that of the Company's host retailers to protect the integrity and security of customer, employee and host retailer information, which may be adversely affected by hacking, computer viruses, or similar disruptions; (22) disruptions in the Company's supply chain; (23) limitations of, or disruptions in, the Company's distribution network; (24) rapid inflation or deflation in the prices of the Company's products; (25) the Company's ability to execute and the effectiveness of store consolidations, including the Company's ability to retain the revenue from customer accounts merged into another store location as a result of a store consolidation; (26) the Company's available cash flow and its ability to generate sufficient cash flow to continue paying dividends; (27) increased competition from traditional competitors, virtual lease-to-own competitors, online retailers, Buy-Now-Pay-Later and other Fintech companies and other competitors, including subprime lenders; (28) the Company's ability to identify and successfully market products and services that appeal to its current and future targeted customer segments and to accurately estimate the size of the total addressable market; (29) consumer preferences and perceptions of the Company's brands; (30) the Company's ability to retain the revenue associated with acquired customer accounts and enhance the performance of acquired stores; (31) the Company's ability to enter into new, and collect on, its rental or lease purchase agreements; (32) changes in the enforcement of existing laws and regulations and the enactment of new laws and regulations adversely affecting the Company's business, including any legislative or regulatory enforcement efforts that seek to re-characterize store-based or virtual lease-to-own transactions as credit sales and to apply consumer credit laws and regulations to the Company's business; (33) the Company's compliance with applicable statutes or regulations governing its businesses; (34) the impact of any additional social unrest such as that experienced in 2020 or otherwise, and resulting damage to the Company's inventory or other assets and potential lost revenues; (35) changes in interest rates; (36) changes in tariff policies; (37) adverse changes in the economic conditions of the industries, countries or markets that the Company serves; (38) information technology and data security costs; (39) the impact of any breaches in data security or other disturbances to the Company's information technology and other networks and the Company's ability to protect the integrity and security of individually identifiable data of its customers, employees and retail partners; (40) changes in estimates relating to self-insurance liabilities and income tax and litigation reserves; (41) changes in the Company's effective tax rate; (42) fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; (43) the Company's ability to maintain an effective system of internal controls, including in connection with the integration of Acima; (44) litigation or administrative proceedings to which the Company is or may be a party to from time to time; and (45) the other risks detailed from time to time in the Company's SEC reports, including but not limited to, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2021 (when filed) and in its subsequent Quarterly

Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this press release.
